

The Sigi Ziering Institute &
 "Facing History and Ourselves" invite you to a special screening of

IMAGINARY WITNESS:

HOLLYWOOD AND THE HOLOCAUST

Imaginary Witness examines the American film community's response to the Nazi genocide by integrating Hollywood film clips with an astonishing array of interviews with world-class directors and actors such as Steven Spielberg, Ron Steiger and Sidney Lumet, scholars and Holocaust survivors.

Join us afterward for a conversation with director Danny Anker and Michael Berenbaum.

Thursday, November 18th • 7:30pm

In the Gindi Auditorium at the University of Judaism

Reservations are required.

Contact Ruthe at 310-440-1534 or rsmall@uj.edu

Admission is free.

UNIVERSITY of JUDAISM

FACING HISTORY AND OURSELVES

The Sigi Ziering Institute for the Study of the Ethical and Religious Implications of the Holocaust is a division of the Center for Jewish Ethics at the University of Judaism.